

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Tennis Nova Scotia – Canada Games Coach

Tennis Nova Scotia is seeking a dedicated and passionate coach to lead our 2025 Canada Summer Games Team. This is an exciting opportunity to contribute to the growth and success of tennis in Nova Scotia and to develop top-level athletes for national competition.

Position:

Head Coach - Canada Games Tennis

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement a comprehensive training program for the Canada Games team.
- Provide technical, tactical, and strategic coaching to athletes.
- Lead team qualification events and athlete development initiatives.
- Foster a high-performance environment with a focus on growth, teamwork, and sportsmanship.
- Attend qualifications, competitions, and Canada Games events.
- Collaborate with Tennis Nova Scotia, athletes, and support staff.
- Collaborate and work closely with the Assistant Coach/Manager.

Qualifications:

- Active certified TPA Coach (Including Respect in Sport module and Sport Safety Requirements)
- A minimum of Coach 2 certification
- Strong knowledge of current Canada Games player pool
- Excellent leadership and communication skills
- Experience in team coaching and working with elite junior athletes.
- Willingness to travel and commit to the full preparation and competition period.

Application Process:

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit the following:

- A cover letter detailing your coaching philosophy and relevant experience.
- A brief coaching resume highlighting qualifications and achievements.

Application Deadline: Thursday, February 27th at 4:00PM AST. Late applications will not be accepted.

Submit applications to: bradlawlor@tennisnovascotia.com